

Joanna Colgan

“I wanted to become a solicitor due to the challenging and varied nature of the work, and the diverse clientele that a career in law provides.”

Joanna completed a Law Degree from the University of Manchester (2.1)

She then completed a Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL Course).

Joanna then completed an LPC MSc Law and Business (Distinction)

Accepted on the Myerson Training Contract!

Q: What made you choose a career in law?

A: The dynamic and ever-evolving nature of law and its practical application to client matters greatly appealed. A career in law provides conceptually challenging subject matter in a fast-paced environment, and the opportunity to develop a career based on continual learning and personal professional development.

Q: Why did you choose Myerson Solicitors?

A: Myerson offered the opportunity to work for a firm which was uniquely placed to offer clients innovative, forward-thinking legal services in a cost-effective and client-centric service delivery. Training with Myerson Solicitors ensured that I would engage directly with clients and complete complex and high-value work therefore offering the opportunity to develop the essential skill set of a successful solicitor during my period of training. The firm's recognition of excellence across many practice areas also greatly appealed as I was able to learn from the wealth of expertise.

Q: Where do you see your future career taking you?

A: I see my future career leading me to become a well-founded professional within my chosen practice group, with developed commercial and sector-focused knowledge that enables me to advise clients.

Q: What advice would you give to anyone considering a Myerson training contract?

A: My advice to anyone considering a Myerson training contract would be to ensure that they focus on being goal-orientated, resolute and driven to achieve consistent results whilst remaining friendly and approachable. Having a can-do attitude and an eagerness to learn and develop your own professional ability is essential.

Training applications for 2021/2022 are open now.

Find out how you can apply for a training contract with Myerson Solicitors:

www.myerson.co.uk/careers

