Accepted on the Myerson Training Contract!

She's now been with Myerson for 12 years!

Q: What made you choose a career in law?

A: My parents and a lot of my family are in law enforcement, so I've always been interested in Law. I studied Law at A-Levels and I was set on becoming a solicitor. The LPC was a lot more practical than the degree so I really enjoyed it.

Q: Why did you choose Myerson Solicitors?

A: I wanted to work in a local law firm, a smaller firm where I could really make a difference. The type of work you do in law is all the same, but in bigger firms there's a different environment. I knew Myerson would suit me better.

Q: What has been your biggest learning experience?

A: The whole training contract was a massive learning experience from start to finish. You learn how to manage client expectations and adapting your approach. You're not expected to know everything from the beginning so everyone is really supportive.

Q: What has been your favourite moment?

A: My favourite and most exciting memory at Myerson has been receiving a court order for search and seize in a litigation case. I saw the case develop from the initial enquiry all the way to the end so it was really satisfying and exciting.

Q: What advice would you give to anyone considering a Myerson training contract?

A: If you pick the right firm, you'll stay there. When I interview now, I want to know 'Why have you actually picked this firm instead of any others?'. Do your research and see if you will fit in with the culture rather than just applying for the sake of it.

Training applications for 2021 / 2022 are open now.
